GIN PANETTONE

Our Gin Infused Panettone has been awarded as INDYBEST as the best panettone in the UK market following the reviews of the newspaper Independent

This was a big hit with our testers. Made in Italy using the traditional method and injected with gin syrup, this panettone is so beautifully wrapped and tied with ribbon, it already feels like a real treat for Christmas time or a gift for a gin fan. On opening, it smells immediately of gin with some subtle vanilla and spices, though not overpoweringly so. The texture is springy and pillowy soft with just the right level of moistness without being too sticky. It holds its shape well, is easy to slice and tastes subtly of juniper crossed with citrus. Very moreish and it's so light you'll easily need another slice.
