GIN PANETTONE

Our Gin Infused Panettone has been awarded as INDYBEST as the best panettone in the UK market following the reviews of the newspaper Independent

INDEPENDENT

“This was a big hit with our testers. Made in Italy using the traditional method and injected with gin syrup, this panettone is so beautifully wrapped and tied with ribbon, it already feels like a real treat for Christmas time or a gift for a gin fan. On opening, it smells immediately of gin with some subtle vanilla and spices, though not overpoweringly so. The texture is springy and pillowy soft with just the right level of moistness without being too sticky. It holds its shape well, is easy to slice and tastes subtly of juniper crossed with citrus. Very moreish and it's so light you'll easily need another slice.”

PANETTONE Spritz INFUSED

Whether you're a fan of Spritz cocktail or a lover of cake, this gorgeous Spritz Drunken Panettone ticks all the boxes for a tipsy festive treat. A traditional Italian sweet bread loaf that's soft and delicious, panettone is a lovely, lighter alternative to a traditional Christmas cake. Infused with the unique flavour of the most Italian Cocktail, it brings together both traditional and modern flavours to create a wonderfully moist and properly boozy cake that's perfect for sharing with friends and family. Presented in a beautifully gift-wrapped box, it would make a lovely gift for any Italian foodie or cocktail lover. Why not try serving with orange sorbet or a vanilla ice cream for a grown-up dessert, or create a fabulously boozy bread-and-butter pudding also for creative aperitif.
